Residential Updates:

Zoom, Zoom, Zoom!

As you know, the Marketing Office hosted two informal “practice” Zoom sessions this past week. We were thrilled with the outcome of the meetings and have decided to schedule more, per residents’ requests.

We urge anyone who feels they need additional “training” with Zoom to join us this coming week, both beginning at 3:00 p.m.: Tuesday, September 8 and Friday, September 11. The Zoom will be hosted by our Resident Services Associate, Kayla McFadden.

This will be an opportunity to familiarize yourself with Zoom or (if you’ve already attended) continue to perfect your skills.

If you have any questions, or if you would like to explore using this platform for a committee or group you lead, please contact the Marketing Office at 610.723.4601. You can also sign up with Kayla in the Marketing office or email her at kmcfadden@dunwoody.org.

We look forward to meeting with you via zoom!

Picnic Thank you!

The Dining staff and administration would like to thank Dr. Tom Devlin and Mr. Warren Lieberman for helping them get the entertainment on 1970 for the picnic dinner this past Wednesday! We could not have done it without you!

Flu Shots:

Health and Wellness will begin administering flu vaccinations on September 8th. We will be following an organized schedule due to the need to limit the number of people in the room and to follow social distancing guidelines.

Please come only on your assigned time and date. If your time interferes with another activity, please come on the makeup date. We unfortunately will not be accommodating walk-ins and will be unable to administer vaccines on the weekends and/or during the evenings

You must come wearing your mask 😊

Please wear sleeveless or short sleeve loose shirts.

Please plan to receive your flu vaccine and disperse from the area in a timely manner.

We will be checking your temperature prior to administering the vaccine.

We will have chairs spaced 6 feet apart to wait until your name is called.

Re: Upcoming Channel 1970 Programs, etc.

The days are getting noticeably shorter, and fall—my favorite season—is just around the corner. I always looked forward to the start of a new school year and a new beginning, as well as the sights and smells of autumn; glorious oranges, reds, and yellows in the trees, the smell of burning leaves, and a nip in the air. As we approach this change of seasons at Dunwoody, there is also a change in what we can do. At long last, in a limited way, we can bring live entertainment (with tiny audiences) back to the auditorium. Channel 1970 will still be the viewing option for most of us, but we will be looking at something actually being performed here at Dunwoody. It takes a while to get this up and running, so don't expect to see any programs before October, but we do have a speaker planned for early that month. We'll provide more details as the time gets closer. Something to look forward to!

We can also look forward to the 1970 programs this week. The Tuesday evening movie is replaced this week by the Residents Association monthly business meeting, with committee chairs reporting live (!) from the auditorium. In other programs, on Wednesday afternoon we start a new series on "Big History", this week defining "What is Big History?" and "Moving across Multiple Scales". Continuing are Father Brown, Hyacinth ("It's pronounced Bouquet"), the denizens of Downton Abbey, and the Holy Land. The Sunday afternoon's movie is that Alex Guinness classic, "Kind Hearts and Coronets", from 1949. "The Descendants" is Saturday evening's movie, and Thursday evening we start another British favorite, Doc Martin, the irascible M.D. who talks to his patients in ways our doctors can only long for, but wouldn't dare. Other evening programs feature the final episode of the "Baseball" series, and a visit to Ecuador and the Galapagos Islands with the Liebermans. Not to be missed on Wednesday evening, the Berlin Philharmonic returns with performances of works by Saint-Saens and Scarlatti by Yefim Bronfman, conducted by Kurt Sanderling.
