Dear Residents, Families & Staff:

Today marks the final day for our interim executive, Chef Sean from Culinesse Consultants who will be relocating to another location. His job is to be “on the move” and he does not work long term in any one location. We are grateful for his contributions and support during his time with us. Culinesse Consultants will be sending a new Executive Chef to join our team in the short term. Chef Sean will assist with the onboarding of the incoming consultant chef who will provide continued culinary support for our Dining Services team.

Hope you’re enjoying the fall weather. Many of us appreciate the opportunity to experience all four seasons. Speaking of seasons, I’m sure that many of you have already begun to plan for the upcoming holidays. Our Dunwoody celebrations are planned and we hope you will join the events!
